

Jacobi T. Crowley

At a young age Jacobi was called by God growing up in church helped guide him to be the man you see today. Jacobi's roots to Southwest Oklahoma communities run deep. He credits God and family for being instrumental in his many achievements throughout his life. Jacobi earned a football scholarship to Southeastern Oklahoma State University, which gave him the opportunity to receive a degree in Special Education with a minor in Behavioral Management.

Upon earning his degree, Jacobi answered the Call and moved back to his hometown to help make a difference in his community and serve in his Childhood church, New Life Fellowship as the Associate Pastor and Youth Pastor. On November 11, 2016 Jacobi was officially ordained as a Minister under the leadership of Dr. Robert Dowell, Senior Pastor at New Life Fellowship. Jacobi is a business owner/entrepreneur, author, life coach, Athletic coach, public speaker, pastor, and community leader. Earning numerous honors, Jacobi has been featured in national news spot lights for his dedication and passion towards his community.

Jacobi Crowley currently serves as the Executive Director of Love Corporation, a nonprofit organization focused on empowering individuals and strengthening communities across Southwest Oklahoma. He is a recognized voice in the region, committed to helping youth discover their purpose by creating access to opportunities, resources, and mentorship.

Prior to his current role, Jacobi served as the Executive Director of the Salvation Army Boys & Girls Club, where he led impactful youth development initiatives and community-based programming. Jacobi ran for Oklahoma State Senate becoming the youngest in states history in advancing to a general election at the age of 25. Jacobi is a host for a local radio talk show called The Revolution on 97.9jamz, where he is able to connect and educate the community on various issues. Jacobi believes that his purpose on this earth is to help people find their purpose!!!!
